

House Republicans Have Passed Multiple Bills Assisting the Unemployed

1. H.R. 3090, October 24, 2001

- Transfer $9 billion in Federal unemployment funds to States.
- Provide $3 billion for health care for unemployed workers.

2. H.R. 3529, December 20, 2001

- Transfer $9 billion in Federal unemployment funds to States.
- Create temporary Federal extended benefits program (see below).

3. H.R. 622, February 14, 2002

- Transfer $9 billion in Federal unemployment funds to States.
- Create temporary Federal extended benefits program (see below).

4. H.R. 3090, March 7, 2002 (Public Law 107-147)

- Transfer $8 billion in Federal unemployment funds to States.
- Create temporary Federal extended benefits program providing benefits for up to 3 months in all States and up to 6 months in high unemployment States for those who have exhausted up to 6 months of State unemployment benefits.

5. H.R. 5063, November 14, 2002

- Extend through January 2003 temporary Federal extended benefits for those receiving them December 28, 2002.
- Allow new temporary Federal extended benefit recipients in certain high unemployment States through January 2003.

6. S. 23, January 8, 2003 (Public Law 108-1)

- Extend temporary Federal extended benefits program through May 2003, with a phaseout allowing those receiving extended benefits by May to continue receiving benefits through as late as August 2003.

7. H.R. 2185, May 22, 2003 (P.L. 108-26)

- Extend temporary Federal extended benefits program through December 2003, with a phaseout through March 2004.